1. A Russian armored unit is quartered in the artillery barracks at the railroad station of Alcsi, north Szolnok, east of the railroad bridge over the Zagyva River. In February 1953 this unit received 50 new JS III tanks which replaced T-34's.
 2. The T-34's were taken away by railroad in the direction of Budapest; they were to be given to the Hungarian Army. There is some reason to believe that they will be used for the formation of a new Hungarian armored division.
